Wife Seeking Divorce

from Stingy Husband.

NOT TOO OLD TO SEPARATE.

GUITE STINGY, DECLARES WIFE

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

SEATTLE (Wash.) Oct. 13.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Eliza W. P. Guy, 75 years of age, has commenced divorce proceedings against Francis M. Guy, 72 years of age. The divorce is asked on grounds of cruelty and failure to provide sufficiently for the aged woman.

The court is asked to declare Seattle really valued at $600,000 community property and to decree that half of it be awarded to the aged woman.

Although the property controlled by

Guy brings him in a monthly income of between $50 and $100, his wife alleges that in the two and one-half years ending last January, he has given her but $5, besides 15 cents for car fare.

OPPOSING JOINT STATEHOOD.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Oct. 13.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) After visiting the more important mining centers of Southern Arizona and after seeing that the irrigation plans of the government will soon develop in this vicinity as much as the state of New Mexico, the visiting Congressmen, the two visiting

Congressmen of the Territory with New Mexico, today, the Congressmen saw

Phoenix, Mesa and Tempe, at the last place being entertained at the Territorial Normal School.

Tonight, in Phoenix, they were entertained at the Territorial Normal

School, at which their adherence to Arizona's interests was plainly expressed. Though all save one voted in the last Congress for joint statehood, they are now opposed to it, and they express the opinion that joint statehood will not pass in the approaching or subsequent Congress.

LOMBA (Russian Poland) Oct. 13.—

(By Atlantic Cable.) Several

wagons loaded with rifles, ammunition, in charge of Jewish teachers, were captured here today. They were on their way to Warsaw, and the ammunition is thought to be a portion of a supply imported by a band for use in an uprising.

MOSCOW, Oct. 13.—Voicing the sentiments of the extreme wing of the Russian reformers, Maxim Gorky today expressed sorrow at the death of Prince Troubetzky, as a man and a Russian, but declared that Russia had nothing to hope from the reported activities of such men as Prince

Troubetzky, he added:

"I regard Prince Troubetzky as a frank, just and honest man, not a representative of the Liberal party, which cannot ever effect reforms in Russia. The ancestors of Troubetzky, Galitsin and Golitsin, went hand in hand with imperialists. The taint is still in the blood. They are incapable of realizing their splendid opportunities to know and further the needs of our people.

"The revolution will come soon, like an avalanche, when last expected. The disasters at Moscow will perhaps come temporarily, but will be resumed in a month or two, with renewed force."

The case against Gorky has not been heard, but the Russian writer reiterated his determination not to permit the proceedings to be dropped. He said he would force the government to bring him to trial.

BRUSH SLAYER OF BESSIE BOUTON.

BERKELEY POLICE MAKE VERY IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

Notorious Crook Who Plotted to Murder Rich Australian Moravian in Person Who Committed Foul Crime Near Colorado Springs a Year Ago—He Still Eludes Police.

BERKELEY, Oct. 13.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The man who with the aid of a woman who posed as his wife, is accused of plotting to murder William Miller, the Australian Moravian, was positively identified today as Milton Franklin Andrews, wanted for the murder of beautiful Bessie Bouton at Colorado Springs, October 1, 1904. Andrews is one of the most notorious and desperate crooks in the world, and the police have been scouring the country for him ever since the murder at Colorado Springs. A standing reward of $1000 is offered for his capture.

The identification of Brush, alias Curtis, was made by Policeman Schuchman, night clerk in Chief Volmer's office. In looking over the records of noted criminals, he observed a close similarity between the description of the Colorado Springs murderer and Brush, alias Curtis, who is now being sought for the assault on the Australian Moravian.

The murder committed by Andrews last year was one of the most sensational in the records of crime. December 14 of last year, the body of a woman identified after much difficulty as that of Bessie Bouton, a traveling salesman, was found on the top of Custer Mountain, near Colorado Springs. The body was made and horribly bruised in an effort to cover traces of the crime. The body was stripped of finger and toe rings, and every vestige that would have led to identification. At that time, Andrews was passing under the name "George Bouton." The woman attracted much attention by reason of her extraordinary beauty and fine figure. It is believed by the Chief of Police that Andrews, or Brush, having plenty of time for flight after the horrible crime on Custer Mountain, fled to San Francisco and took a steamer to Australia, where he is believed to be. The police think that he met the woman who aided in his flight in his country.

In the trunk of Brush at the Berkeley house where he tried to murder Miller, were found three letters. One was a circular sent out by the police of Colorado Springs to the local police, and that the first thing he should do when he struck a town was to buy some of these books. City Marshal Volmer, in going through a trunk left behind by Brush, found tonight a Denver newspaper dated October 2, 1904, containing an account of the mysterious disappearance of a Julia Ward. Marshal Volmer further said that he in possession of clues which he thinks will soon lead to apprehension of Brush.

SUICIDE CONFESSES MURDER.

OTHERS CONVICTED FOR CRIMES.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—Alexander Wallace, superior court judge, received a letter today from James H. Smith, a writer of the Southern Illinois Semipalm, at Mendon, Ill., inciting a confession of a crime committed by James H. Brown, a few hours before he committed suicide in the jail.

In the confession, Brown states that he and two other men, including Thomas D. Kahney, the Mount Washington grocer, for which crime Jack and Edward Kahney were convicted today, were convicted, the Biddies escaping the hangman's rope by breaking through the jail. Kahney, the brother of the warden's wife and fleeing to Butler county, where they were located and shot down by officers.

In addition to the murder of Kahney, Brown charges himself and companions with having robbed and murdered a man while on the way from the killing of Kahney. The body of the second man, he said, was thrown into the Monongahela River. Brown also says that he and one companion murdered three members of their party and burned the body.

STOLE TO SUPPORT FAMILY.

UNEXPECTED GIRL, CONFESSES.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Mary E. Golding, cashier for the Larkin Soap Company, confessed in police court today that she has embezzled at least $2000 from her employers within four years and has made use of it to support and care for her mother, father and invalid sister at Buffalo.

The young woman was unrepentant even by her employers up to yesterday, when, to save another employee upon whom suspicion of peculation had fallen, she voluntarily went to her employers with the same confession which she made in court today. For weeks the girl had worked with accountants employed for the specific purpose of tracing these peculations, but so well had she concealed her work that she remained the adviser of both the accountants and the detectives up to yesterday.

Miss Golding's salary was $15 per week.

PAPERS ON HORSETHIEF.

SHOW ORGANIZED GANG EXISTS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
HELENA (Mont.) Oct. 13.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Highly-sensational developments are hourly expected here, involving a number of residents of Northeastern Montana and Northwestern North Dakota, the result of finding of papers upon the body of a desperado horsethief killed in a duel with Stock Inspector Hall in Halley county, Montana, which tend to show that a regularly-organized band of horse-thieves has existed for years, and that its operations have been very profitable.

Hall has been arrested, that he may be legally executed. The cashier of a bank in this place is alleged to have been implicated, and as a result of the investigation officials assert that the band has made away with more than one thousand horses. These animals were paroled among the members of the gang, which is said to have had a large and influential membership, including government and county officials, and disposed of after being kept under cover for a short time.

Labrador Carves One Man and Stands Off Score During Drunken Row in Grading Camp.

During a drunken row at Stansbury's grading camp, First and Ramon streets, last night, Henry Miller, a laborer, ran amuck with a butcher knife and stood off a crowd of twenty-five men.

FORGERS CAPTURED.

Two Young Men Fined San Jose With Bogus Checks Drawn on Los Angeles Banks.

The police were advised last night of the arrest in San Jose of C. Roland and B. H. Little on charges of passing worthless checks. At least a score of worthless checks, drawn on Los Angeles banks, are said to have passed the worthless paper which Roland and Little scattered broadcast.

The majority of the checks were drawn on Los Angeles and Pasadena banks. A search of the men's records revealed four checks that had been issued by a police officer and were wanted also in San Francisco and Santa Cruz for similar operations.

"BRACE" GAME RAIDED.

Police Descend Upon Spring Street Poker Joint and Take Four Men in Custody.

"Dr." J. H. Swain, proprietor, William Riley, R. Bradley and G. A. Grant, players at a poker joint at No. 430 South Main street, were caught in a police raid last night when five of Capt. Auble's men broke down a door and forced their way into the place. The four men were seized around a table heaped with chips and two on-lookers were present when the police made their sensational entrance.

"Dr." Swain is said to be the owner of the joint which the police claim has been harboring a "brace" game. Swain's partner, Kendall, recently served a sixty-day sentence in jail for conducting a blind pig in the same building. Swain was released on $100 bail, in default of $500 each the other players were locked up.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Lightfoot Committed for Perjury.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Lightfoot, alias Norman Bates, the cattle man who yesterday created a sensation during the proceedings in the case of Hugh Watt, was committed to prison today. He is charged with attempting to bribe a private detective to assist him in murdering his former wife by retracting his previous evidence in the case, was arraigned in a police court today and committed for trial at the Old Bailey on the charge of perjury.

Burns Lips Tell Story.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—The body of a man believed to be Charles Steinman of the Willow Glen basket factory at San Jose, was found in Golden Gate Park this morning. Beside the dead man's body was an empty vial that had contained carbolic acid and burns about the lips made it evident that he used this poison to end his life. Steinman had been ailing for some time, but his friends in the city did not believe he contemplated self-destruction.

Handled a Million, Paid Little.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—The continued search for Edward G. Cunliffe, and the $100,000 belonging to the Adams Express Company but not brought to light any definite clue. A theory advanced today is that Cunliffe has sailed for some South American port. Investigation yesterday brought to light the fact that Cunliffe, though handling perhaps a million dollars yearly, was paid but $55 per month in salary and was under only $2000 bonds.

CARTER'S STUB BOOKS

Attorney for the Captain Charges Dishonesty Against Federal Officers Who Investigated.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Charges of dishonesty against government officials connected with the investigation of Capt. O. M. Carter's affairs as a government engineer were made today by Attorney Stone, counsel for Capt. Carter. Attorney Erwin for the government had asked Capt. Carter to produce certain check stub books. There upon Attorney Stone declared the stubs had been seized by the government some time ago, and everything favors-ble to Carter's case destroyed while the unfavorable documentary evidence was saved.

"We do not get the stub books in question," said Attorney Erwin. "and Capt. Carter is known to have received them from R. F. Westcott, his father-in-law, so Capt. Carter must produce them." The stub books, answered Attorney Stone, "were in a box, which was seized, and we want you to produce it."

"We intend to show that they were in Carter's possession, after the box was seized," said Attorney Erwin. "and he must produce the documents." Carter was then asked concerning a contract which bore his signature, and that of his father-in-law, showing that he had sold $25,000 on certain property in Orange, N. J. Carter declared that he signed the document, believing it merely meant the dealing of $1,000 worth of property to him by his father-in-law as a present.

OFFICERS SENT TO JAIL.

Centumacious Witnesses in "Paper Trust" Suit File Appeal to the Supreme Court.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
ST. PAUL (Minn.) Oct. 13.—C. I. McNair, R. F. Nelson and A. P. Fowder, who were recently ordered by Judge Vandewater to answer certain questions which might be asked of them and to produce the books of their respective paper companies before Special Examiner Taylor of the United States District Court, yesterday failed to comply with the order and were adjudged in contempt of court.

Judge Vandewater sentenced each of the contemptuous witnesses to pay a fine of $100 and to be confined in the County Jail until purged of contempt. Immediately, notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States was given and five days were allowed the defendants' attorneys in which to prepare a writ of error and perfect the appeal. This act was a slow of sentence, and the respondents were released on bail pending the decision of the Supreme Court.

Their testimony was wanted in connection with the suit of the United States against the General Paper Company.

Two Hundred Were in the Clyde Coal Company's Shaft When It Took Fire.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—F.M.)

The mine is on fire, and efforts to reach the entrapped men have been abandoned. Nearly two hundred men were in the mine when the fire started today. All but the six named escaped.

"WORKING" THE METER.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) In attempting to take money from a slot machine in the basement of a house today, Thomas Gaughan cut the gas pipe and was overcome by escaping fumes. He fell to the floor, where he was later found dead. It is the belief of the police that he was trying to empty the money slot of its contents when he met death. From the position of the body and the damage to the machine, the police say the man was trying to steal when overpowered by gas.

FEVER SITUATION CHEERING.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 13.—Except for the fact that a nest of fever has been discovered at New Iberia, the fever situation is cheering. Eighteen cases are now under treatment at New Iberia and they have all been reported within the past two days, indicating that the disease has prevailed there for a long time. Failure to discover it before is explained by the fact that the disease is exceedingly mild. Baton Rouge today threw open its doors to the world.

TUSTIN'S "RETRACTION."

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) W. E. Mitchell, mining expert employed by E. R. Tustin to examine the properties of the Green Gold Consolidated Gold Company, obtained a retraction from M. OUR WELCOME TO PIONEERS.

Drinking Demonstration at Chamber Reception.

Silver-tongued Tom Fitch Greets Visitors.

Trail-blazers from Utah Tell of Long Ago.

Perhaps one of the most striking demonstrations witnessed in Los Angeles in some time was the public reception tendered by the Chamber of Commerce to the visiting Salt Lake pioneers of the early Mormon California days, from 7 to 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The two large reception rooms were early filled with the visitors, the committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to receive them, and a number of the residents of Los Angeles. Headed by A. W. Skinner, who had charge of the reception program, the committee met the visitors as they entered, and cordially offered them the hospitality of the organization. Hundreds were there to greet the pioneers.

The first part of the entire program was a series of extemporaneous addresses inspired by the good-will and enthusiasm born of the occasion. The general trend of the remarks was reminiscent of the early days of Los Angeles and Southern California, and while often provocative of mirth, yet thrilled with a quality of deep human interest.

Mr. W. C. Smoot, in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, welcomed the visitors, and attested the appreciation of the present generation of the city and its officials for the pioneers of the early day who laid the foundation for the present development of the country.

SILVER-TONGUED GREETING.

Tom Fitch, silver-tongued, and really eloquent because speaking from the heart, welcomed the visitors with a long and glowing address. He spoke of the territorial representative of the city, and of the pioneers of the early day who laid the foundation for the present development of the country.

vividly the time, fifty-four years ago when he and a party of seventeen other adventurous companions camped early one evening on the east bank of Los Angeles River. With the memory of that time in mind, he said it was a physical impossibility for him to comprehend the marvelous changes which have taken place since.

He also modestly intimated his conviction that if he had invested a few hundred in Los Angeles real estate at that time and had held on to it until today, he would have had considerable difficulty in counting up exactly how many millions he would be worth. He concluded his remarks with a tribute of praise to the builders of the Salt Lake road, and an expression of heartfelt appreciation of the genuine hospitality accorded him and his companions by the people and the Chamber of Commerce of this city.

OTHER EARLY COMERS.

W. C. A. Smoot, referring to the old-timers as antique diamonds that have never been polished, recalled the impressions of his trolley ride about the city, and his belief that all of the outlying towns were a part of Los Angeles. When informed of his slight mistake, he contended that the time must soon come when all of these suburban villages will be a part of the greatest city of the Southland.

Mr. Daniel Barrus, who came to Los Angeles first as a lieutenant of United States cavalry in 1848, serving in the Mexican war, humorously recalled the building of the first fort before he left for Utah fifty years ago, and his boasts to his companions on the way out that he would take them up on the hill and show them this fort when they arrived. But neither the fort nor any of the other familiar spots of that time has been able to locate.

Vice-President J. Ross Clark of the Salt Lake, on behalf both of his brother and of the railroad, again assured the visitors of the intention of the railroad to do everything in its power to make their stay pleasant.

John Brown, Jr., of San Bernardino, presented to the Chamber of Commerce handsome enlarged group photograph of all the old settlers, made by Mr. E. H. Rafter. The Times staff photographer, W. C. A. Smoot, Jr., as the manager of the expedition, added his thanks to those of the other members of the party in a general testimonial of appreciation to the people of Los Angeles and the Chamber of Commerce.

IS PAIN A PLEASURE?

There is Much Craving for Painful Emotion and Tragic Scenes.

[Chicago Chronicle:] Human nature is full of contradictions, and one of them is the apparent pleasure which human beings take in painful sights, sounds and emotions.

As a general proposition it might be said that it is a painful thing to visit a hospital, to look upon blind and armless beggars, to see a street car run over a woman, to see a strong man impose upon and beat a child, to visit a desolate and witness the gasping and the contortions of countenance of a dying person. It is generally supposed that such scenes inspire sympathy and pity and are painful emotions and that even solemnity is their shadow.

On the other hand, there is an almost universal disposition among human beings to subject themselves to these feelings, though different people are constituted somewhat differently in this regard. Dog fights, cock fights, dog fights, prize fights and street fights are greatly sought after by some people and a much larger number are attracted by hangings and by great casualties in which many lives are lost and the dead are frightfully mangled.

Strange to say, there is no more pain and suffering in actual life to satisfy this craving for painful emotions, and the human family from time immemorial has been given to fictitious presentations of suffering for the purpose of exciting them artificially.

This has been done by the novel and the drama. A person will sit at home evening in tears over a story of persecution, suffering and painful death, and the human family from time immemorial has been given to fictitious presentations of suffering for the purpose of exciting them artificially.

Without meaning at all to reflect on the truth of religion, it is impossible not to consider its relation to this pleasure-taking in painful emotions. One inseparable element of religion is solemnity, which always implies danger or loss, but with many people, at least, religion also implies tears and yet solemnity and sadness are twin sisters.

This paradox in human nature is made, if anything, all the more curious by the fact that there is a fashion in regard to enjoying pain and that it is not nearly so common now as it was fifty years ago. There was a time when "The Reveries of a Bachelor," "The Sorrows of Werther," and Dickens's novels were regarded as the choicest reading and when plays like "East Lynne" and actresses like Clara Morris were the particular joy of theater-goers. Men and women would weep for hours over Little Nell or go to the theater and see Clara Morris die of consumption and consider that they had enjoyed an immense treat, but there has been a great change in this respect. The world has swung away from these emotional intoxications to some extent and whether it will ever swing back again no one can tell.

The puzzle remains, however, that pleasure and pain are completely confounded in the human mind and that to this day the greatest pleasure of many people is found in the experience of painful and tearful emotion.

Monster Purchase of Dry Goods at Auction.

The dry goods stock of Hasebath & Rogers of Fresno, Cal., was sold at auction Wednesday afternoon to the J. B. Lane Dry Goods Co., of 227-229 South Broadway, Los Angeles.

The purchase price was exceedingly low, being only one-half the actual value, and is considered by dry goods men a splendid buy.

Mr. Lane returned from Fresno today, after having spent the last few days in packing and shipping the stock, and that the J. B. Lane Dry Goods Co. has been placed the entire stock, over $50,000, on sale in store ten days. No price has been named but it is likely that it will sell at about 60c on the dollar.

PEOPLE WANT CAR SERVICE.

And South Park Meeting No "Recall" Affair.

Spook Howton Called Down, Invited to Move.

Committee to Ask Council for Accommodation.

Spook Howton, Councilman by sufferance from the Sixth Ward, was invited last night to move out of that building. He said he would—but, alas, it was like his resignation from the City Council, he didn't really mean it, don't you know.

The Sixth Ward might receive a hard jolt from his own constituents at a mass meeting held to discuss the street railway situation on South Park avenue. Voters of the ward took occasion to plainly express their supreme disgust with him and his antics.

"It really seems that I am unpopular here, tonight," finally murmured Howton, as he crawled down from the top of the work bench on which he had been addressing the open-air meeting, his hearers heartily agreed with him, and he hid himself home-ward.

The meeting was a gathering at South Park and Vernon avenues of patrons of the South Park-avenue electric railway, torn up by the city, to discuss means for securing a resumption of car traffic on the street.

Despite the silly "recall" twaddle of the Express, which announced falsely that the meeting was called to secure signatures to a petition demanding the recall of the Mayor, "recall" wasn't even mentioned in the meeting.

On the street railway proposition the citizens took the sensible stand that they need the car service, are much inconvenienced by its discontinuance, and want it back. The general expression of opinion was that some method should be adopted which would allow of the road being operated as a convenience to the residents of the district until the State Supreme Court gave its decision on the injunction case under which the city authorities gave taken action in tearing out the tracks.

M. M. Davidson presided, and ex-City Attorney Walter Haas was the first speaker. He took the ground that the Los Angeles Railway Company could be allowed to operate the road until the decision of the court, under a condition that the city should reimburse the company for the loss of traffic which the decision be against it. He declared that under present conditions the city might be held for not only the actual damages for tearing up the road, but the loss of traffic which the company might suffer.

Never missing a chance to make a speech, Howton, however, and had himself called for. He advocated the arresting of H. H. Howton, and said the Mayor ought to move right out in the street and take the railroad board into custody.

Howton gave the people advice as to what they should do to secure the reopening of the road. He was "plunged down to the point," "Will you vote for these measures?" and the human family from time immemorial has been given to fictitious presentations of suffering for the purpose of exciting them artificially.

The YOUNG MAN and THE WORLD

By SENATOR ALBERT J. BEVERIDGE

PLAIN COMMON SENSE

Few men have been held so highly by the young men of the country as is Senator Beveridge.

Rarely has the career of any one been so encouraging to the young man who expects to do something. Why?

Plowboy at 12; logger at 14; graduated from college, De Pauw, at 23; plainman, law clerk, lawyer, United States Senator at 36—that is what Senator Beveridge, poor and without a pull, has done by sheer pluck and hard work. And his steady conservative work in the Senate has won him the equal regard of older men also.

No other man could be better equipped than Senator Beveridge to talk with young men about what they are going to do with their lives.

It is concentrated common sense. It does not preach, scold nor advise tiresomely. It reads like friends talking together.

It counsels cordially. It speaks encouragingly, as comrade to comrade. Full of incident, brilliant with illustration, it reads like a story. It is as forcible, vigorous and healthy as the man himself. No young man of ambition can afford to be without it. It is practically helpful—it gets down to the A B C of living. Not a father nor a mother should fail to put it into the hands of their boys—it will inspire them and fascinate while it inspires. You will read it through if you begin it.

There are twelve chapters—every one of them loaded with that American wisdom called common sense. And the book is bright—not a dull page, not a dull paragraph, not a dull line.

It is written in the Indiana Senator's best style, and the man who cannot get new vigor in reading its crisp chapters is not a live American.

It is not only a brilliant book and a practical book—it is a big book, a big-hearted, big-brained book. It is the frankest kind of a talk between a United States Senator who has been through the mill himself and every young man who must go through the mill himself. It is a talk with the young man of the young man's country by its most prominent young man.

Fluid Under Suspicion at Del Rio Springs is Declared Pure and Will be Used—Whipple Barracks to Become an Eight-Company Post and Big Improvements Proceed.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES)
PRESCOTT (APRIL 26). Col. H. Prescott has sold bonds to the city of Prescott and will use the money for the betterment of the municipal water system. New engines have been purchased in Los Angeles, and an excavation is being made at the water lift from the supply point to Prescott and raise the supply from 300,000 to 600,000 gallons a day. It is now announced that Whipple Barracks will become an eight-company infantry post, instead of housing only one company, as had been originally designed. Work completed and that which is under way is valued at nearly $1,000,000. The new barracks will include the improvements and buildings in the end will not fall short of $1,000,000. The new barracks will be the largest of the very best in the United States. All the old buildings are being torn down and replaced by new granite and white sandstone block. One set of contractors has been bankrupted and another set is in the process of being selected. It is a fact that the government demands the highest possible grade of work. A large part of the cost of the new buildings had to be born down because of a variation from the proper shade of color.

BREVITIES.

The volume of "Liners" in the Sunday Times has become so large that it is found necessary to ask patrons to get their Sunday advertisements in earlier; especially Sunday real estate advertisements, which in order to be printed must be in the office not later than 10 o'clock Saturday night. The printing of the real estate matter, including advertisements, in a part by itself on Sunday involves somewhat slower press work, making it essential. In order to get the paper out on time, to stop receiving real estate ads at 10 o'clock Saturday night. Dealers will confer a favor on the Times office if they will turn in Sunday copy on Friday, when possible; or at least a part of it, and the balance early Saturday. Sunday "Want" ads will still be received by phone and over the counter until 11 o'clock Saturday night.

Times' "Liner" Advertisements—Important change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1933, and thereafter, the rate for Sunday "Liners" will be 14 cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is simply justified by the present Sunday circulation of the Times, which averages over 8,000 copies. When the 1-cent per-word rate was established in 1932, the Times Sunday circulation was only 4,000 copies. The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

TROLLEY AND AUTO CRASH.

Contractor Morrison Hurt, Tearing Car Wrecked, and Passengers Jarred by Meeting on Track.

J. W. Morrison, a contractor of No. 454 Grand View, tried to pass in his big touring automobile in front of a trolley at Seventh and Olive streets yesterday afternoon, and Motorist H. L. Burch suddenly seemed possessed of a desire to pass in front of Morrison. With a crash and a roar Morrison's machine ran into the car just as it was rounding the curve into Olive street. Morrison, who was the sole occupant of the automobile, was hurled through a window of the car and sustained a severe gash across the forehead and numerous bruises. Several passengers were shaken by the force of the collision and flying glass fell about them, but none was injured. The automobile was wrecked. The motorist blamed Morrison for trying to cut across in front of his car while rounding the curve, but Morrison thought the accident was due to the motorist's carelessness. A large crowd gathered about the scene of the accident, and helped remove the wrecked automobile. Morrison was sent to his home, where he was resting comfortably last night.

AWAY ABOVE THE COMMONPLACE.

Young men's ideas are apt to soar above the level of the commonplace.

We make our suits for young men with these ideas in mind. Brauer-Krohn clothing is full of individuality, both in cut and in cloth—the cloth being rough or smooth, or the new long neck or the regulation double breasted coat.

We're enjoying the trade of more young men than any other tailoring establishment in town. And we dress them at a very moderate cost.

HAY-HOWTON
AFTER GRAFT.

Cheap Land Scheme to Bleed
Labor Union Dupes.

Adopting Dowie's Methods to Line Their Pockets.

Wretched Colonization Game
for Big Take-off.

Now comes the fiercest graft yet sprung in the name of philanthropy in Los Angeles. It is but natural that it should be so, for grafters of long experience are at its head—no less than the delectable Sixth Ward Councilman, "Dr." Arthur Howton, and the notorious grafter, Arthur Hay, of Typographical Union fame.

This precious duo have a scheme by which they hope to work their dupes in the union labor ranks and line their pockets with thousands of dollars.

In the name of philanthropy and brotherhood they propose to sell to these union labor dupes for good stiff prices acreage in a mythical Mexican colony that is practically worthless.

All the machinery of the union laboratories is to be used to force the scheme upon the attention of its members. They are to be asked to take land, simply to "help the good work along," and it is thought even possible that by some twisting Hay may be able to divert a portion of the $25,000 set apart by the Typographical Union to fight the Times, so that this may go into the funds of the grafters.

Howton is preparing to make a trip down to Mexico, so that he may give "local color" to the palatable scheme.

The hearts of Howton and Hay have been for the people. They have longed to get the people where they could hold them up for even more graft than was possible under various union pretenses the present; and the brilliant idea at last struck them that by a colonization scheme they could reap the fruits of their grafting.

Howton is enthusiastic. "Why," he declares, "if that old duck of a Scotchman, Alex. Dowie, can gather in his clans of fanatics and make them dig up the good coin, I don't see what's to hinder us. Arthur, from making even a bigger haul. We've got the machinery and we can make the graves think they have the chance of their lives."

So Hay and Howton have worked out a scheme whereby they are to get possession of 50,000 acres of cheap land down in the State of Sonora, Mexico.
It is to be a colony where they can elect of the labor unions may have residence. Howton and Hay are to get the tract at 50 cents the acre; and they are to cut it up and parcel it out to their dupes at a rate from $10 to $50 per acre.

Not content with the raffle which he has had from handling the funds for fighting the Times all these hopeless years, Hay now wants to use his office to help him in this land-swindling scheme.

The pitiful part of all this is that these fellows will try to work their wretched scheme so as to run in working girls, dependent on their daily wages; and men whose families need the salaries, and who can ill afford the money it will take to learn this bitter lesson of experience.

Howton has made a great howl because he has not had an opportunity to see the Owens River, which the city has acquired for its domestic water supply. Soon the City Council will make a visit to Inyo county to inspect the city's property, and Hay and Howton plans to sink off, while the other members of the City Council are on the trip, the Owens River, which the city has acquired for its domestic water supply.

Hay and Howton are negotiating with several agents for 50,000 acres in Mexico, and are after the cheapest land they can get.

Except for the lucky chance of being seen by the brakeman, Fields, would undoubtedly have lain in the gutter until morning in imminent danger of dying or being killed by a passing switch engine as the train had already reached the outskirts of the railroad yards.

At his home last night Fields was resting easily and unconscious follow he will recover.

A large proportion of the membership of East Gate Lodge, F. & A. M., assembled last evening to listen to a lecture by R. W. Dromgold on "The Country West of the Rockies." Although the subject is one which might be considered familiar, his treatment of it in description and narration of incident was most interesting.

In the course of his remarks Mr. Drom-gold said in speaking of the scope of the irrigation project now under way:
"Of the 1,322,000 acres that the government is placing under irrigation now in the West, the largest single tract is in the order of 100,000 acres, but the government is assured of having every dollar that it spends returned to its treasury. The irrigated lands of Utah sustain a population of three hundred persons to the square mile, but the irrigated lands of the Nile in Egypt sustain twelve hundred souls to the square mile. If the plan of Uncle Sam are carried out, and his lands are made to sustain an equal number of people, it will provide for an increased population of twenty-five million good American citizens, and yet the lands that are to so much are as worthless as the sands of the Sahara Desert without the application of water."

Mr. Dromgold also paid a warm tribute to the great Owens River water supply project for Los Angeles. He praised the men who have been so instrumental in its inception and development.

OUR FEDERAL TEMPLE SOON.

Work to be Begun Within Ninety Days Sure.

Declares Roberts, the Man Who Superintends.

In Two Years Big Postoffice
Should be Finished.

Within less than three months—possibly within sixty days—actual work will be begun on the $1,000,000 Federal building for Los Angeles.

This is the statement of J. W. Roberts, superintendent of government buildings, who is now in the city looking after details regarding the closing of plans for the new building.

There is no good reason why the Federal building for this city cannot be completed within two years, or, at the outside, within two and a half years," said Mr. Roberts, yesterday.

"I'd be willing to put up a $5,000 bond that I could carry it through to completion within two years from the time work is commenced. I believe it will be done. Much of the delay which is accredited to the government in the construction of public buildings is really due to the negligence or carelessness and lack of business methods of the contractors."

If the contractor who is awarded the construction of the Los Angeles building will furnish together samples of all his materials, and promptly send them in one shipment to Washington, for the approval of the government inspectors, this alone will save months in its erection.

Today there will be shipped from Los Angeles to Washington sealed glass tubes containing sections of the earth taken from test holes sunk during the construction of the government building site. This is to show the actual formation of the earth, and on it will be based the location of the building.

This Roberts says, is the last thing required in completing the plans and specifications, and that as soon as these samples are received the plans will be completed. He said that he forwarded to Los Angeles bids will be received on the work, and there is no doubt that the contract for the great building Los Angeles has so long needed.

Six test holes have been sunk on the building site. The last were completed last night. They reach a depth of from twenty to twenty-six feet, and show a uniform gravel formation beneath the whole site. No difficulty will be encountered in the construction of foundations on such a base.

The magnificent $2,500,000 Federal building just completed at San Francisco has been constructed under the supervision of Roberts, and he is now engaged in the remodeling of the third story of the present building. His next work will be the raising of the old Customhouse and Postoffice at Washington and Battery streets, San Francisco.

It was he who carried through the negotiations for the purchase of the additional frontage on the old postoffice site on Main street in this city several years ago, and it was also under his supervision that the addition to the old postoffice was made. This was the building which was outgrown even before it was completed.

Speaking of the project of placing the new City Hall on the site proposed near the Federal building, Mr. Roberts declared: "It would be a wise choice, from my point of view. I hope the city will decide to accept the site. This grouping together of public buildings, of time, public convenience, and from an architectural standpoint. The city should accept the site, and then provisions should be made for parking between the buildings."

MEN'S CLUB JUBILATES.
Rev. Baker P. Lee's Right-Hand Man Has Talk and Tell Stories, Also Sings Songs.

Last night in the pretty banquet room at the Angelus Hotel nearly one hundred men of the Men's Club of Christ's Church had a right merry time at the bi-monthly dinner of the club.

The rector of the church, Rev. Baker
P. Lee, was toastmaster for the occasion. He gave a most interesting and humorous review of the year's work of the church, and the new rector of St. John's Church.

The presence of Bishop Johnson had been expected, but official duties kept the chief shepherd away from this particular corner of the fold.

During the progress of the repast a toast was drunk in bright Los Angeles River water to the President of the United States. The ice cream disposed of and cigars being lighted a series of humorous toasts were proposed by the chairman. It will not be necessary to reproduce them as no man in his talk paid the least attention to the sentiment set before him. The speakers in the order in which they were called up were: George W. Parsons, Rev. Governor Morris, Dr. Swift, Mr.
Hugh Saxton, Tom Woolwine, W. St.
Hugh Saxton, and W. G. Burton.

Stories formed a large part of the talking, and were very informal. The chairman announced on the Building Committee J. H. Chaffey, Mr. Rockwell and More Stephens. The purpose is to secure a lot and put up a home for the club.

The toastmaster then read a toast to Bishop Johnson, couched in very pretty words.

REBEKAH DRILL AND BALL.
An exhibition drill was given by the ladies of the Rebekah Bazaar. The company at Elks' Hall last night. The young women executed several difficult maneuvers, and delighted the large audience with their excellent exhibition.

The Rebekah company drill was according to United States military factics, and at the word of command of the captain, Albie Parker. A grand ball followed the drill.
